

IALEIA Organization Membership

ORGANIZATION

IALEIA was established in 1981. Since that time, it has grown to nearly 4,000 members located in over 40 countries. These analysts work in various disciplines within the intelligence community across all levels of government, the private sector, and academia.

MISSION

IALEIA advances public and official understanding of intelligence analysis and its role as a profession through advocacy, training, certification, networking, professionalism, and research.

MEMBERSHIP

IALEIA offers special membership categories for public sector companies that demonstrate support to the community as well as academic institutions with undergraduate and graduate level programs in criminal justice, intelligence, homeland security, and other related fields.

BENEFITS

Benefits include: marketing materials, advertising opportunities, webinar hosting options, preferred booth location at the LEIU/IALEIA Annual Training Event... AND MORE!!

Join today!

*For more information, contact partnerships@ialeia.org
OR go to www.ialeia.org*